THE BATHROOM REPORT

MONOCHROME MUSE

Gauri Khan's design sensibility is an extension of her personal style: eclectic with a dash of glamour. Her private sanctuary is no different. Featuring monochromatic tones with crystal accents and animal prints, Sumesh Menon, design director, Sumesh Menon and Associates, shows you how to go bold and beautiful:

- When combining a black and white decor palette, use more shades of white to give the illusion of space.
- Dull gold, brass finishes and matte black complement this palette.
- Monochrome hues are a bold look to pull off, so don't go overboard with accessorising or mixing patterns. It will take away the design's essence.

A room of one's own

Rustic restraint or bright and bold, Arzoo Dina shares three distinct plans to conjure up a bathroom styled after your own idiosyncrasies

No longer relegated to being solely functional spaces, bathrooms are getting the same treatment as the rest of our home—a lot more attention to finer details. Our own oasis of calm, a bathroom's sense of serenity, comfort and warmth can be heightened if it is modelled after a personal aesthetic. We pick three celebrity bathroom moods to match your signature style.

1. 'Statuario' porcelain tiles by Florim, available at Intersect, ₹1,015 per sq ft
2. 'Tortoise' mirror, Maison Valentina, ₹4,13,360
3. 'Dilhi' perfume bottle, Lalique, ₹38,300
4. 'Minera' decorative bowl, Swarovski, ₹9890
5. 'Leopard' stool by Osanna Visconti, The Invisible Collection, ₹345,000
